What would it take?

For citizens to show up for each other

Leigh Creighton & Jen Cush

hunter circles

About the Social Connector role

“Together we can do so much”

hunter circles

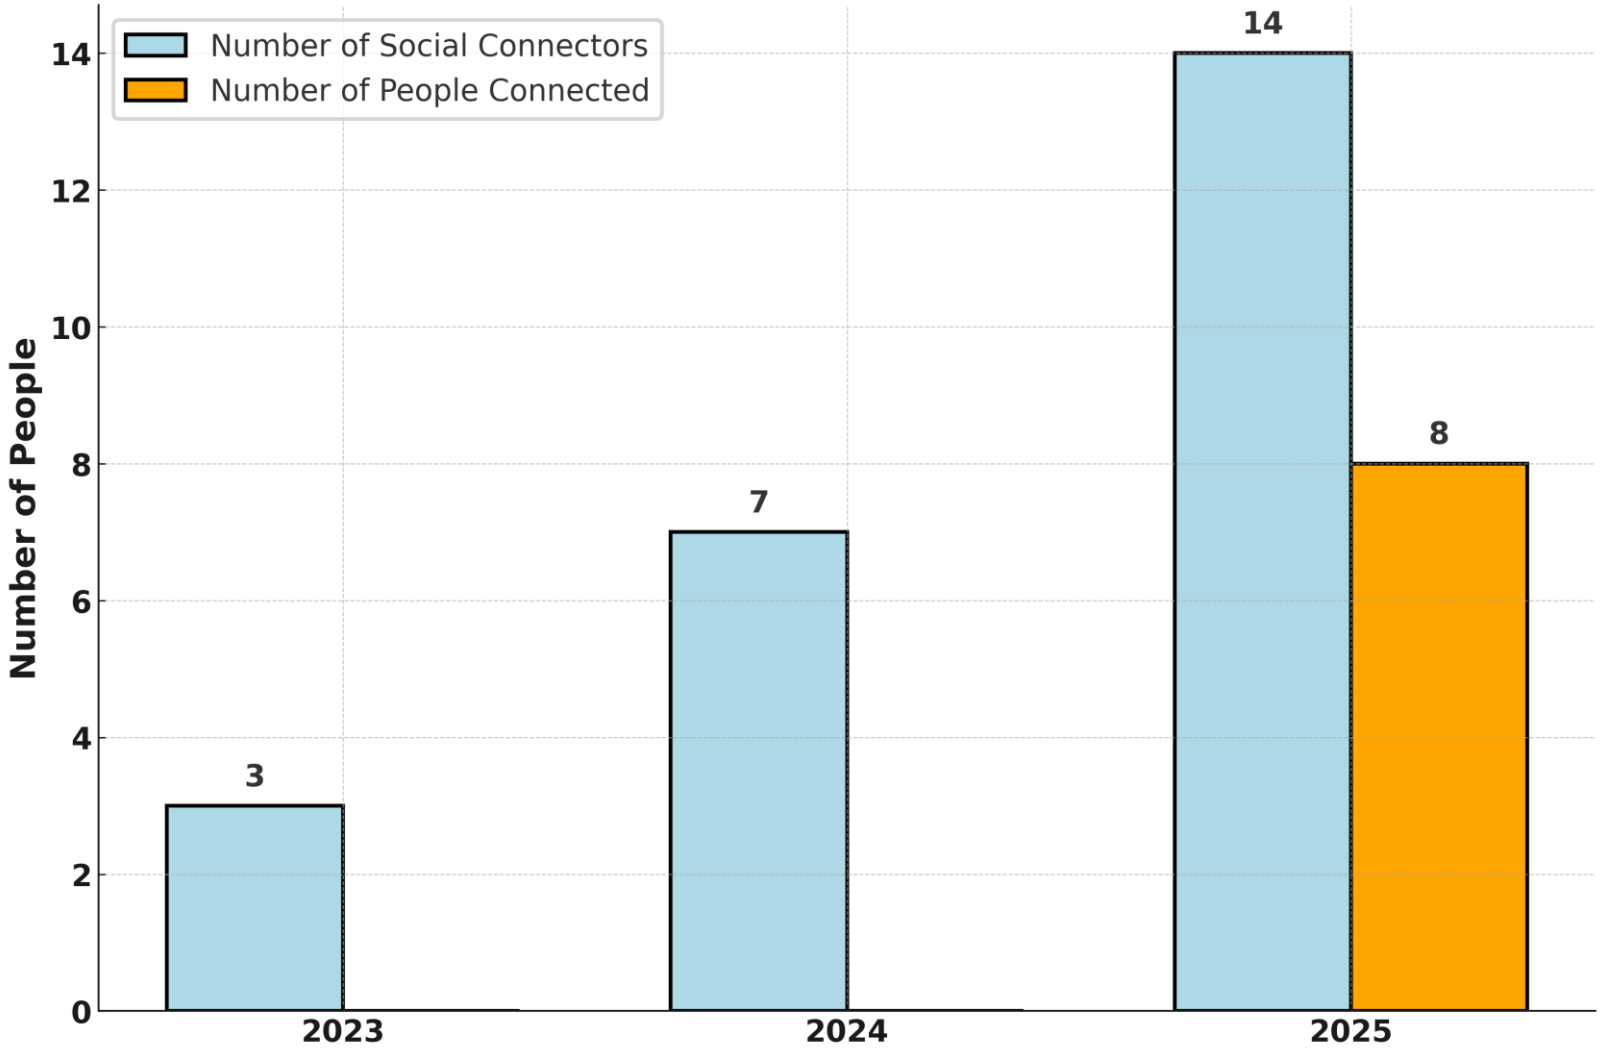
The power of one friendship

“Dan has successfully immersed my brother in a circle of friendships, making life in the community feel ordinary and enriching his life profoundly.

All my siblings were able to reconnect for the first time in 50 years to celebrate his birthday – a huge movement stepping out of family trauma.

Dan is now Don's friend, taking him out into the world. He makes this part of everyday life, and that frees me from my past."

Working at the pace of trust



"Together we can do so much"

hunter circles

Exploring Preferences

“Together we can do so much”

hunter circles

House parties

“Together we can do so much”

hunter circles